June 14, 1976

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Your letter to me of February 28, 1976, consisting of the information I asked for concerning the Oswald-Bringuier debate. I followed your suggestion about obtaining a copy from the Archives. I was able to obtain permission from WDSU to have copies made of the debate and also their film of Oswald handing out leaflets for his Fair Play For Cuba committee. At the same time I requested a copy of the debate without permission from the Archives-the cost would be $4.94. But as luck has it, the copy is not audio. I was wondering if I can still buy a copy of the debate from you for the $21.00. Thanks for the help. And I hope you are feeling better now.

Sincerely

John R. Woods II
